1. Economy measures: For the time being there is not much evidence of any economy in the Army as the announcement of lowering the Army budget would suggest. The Army building concern Konstruktiva is going on with all its projects at full speed and is also building a number of new apartments for personnel of the Army and of the police force in Prague and elsewhere. The only economy measures to be observed are some reductions in petty expenditure such as travel expenses, etc., which have been cut considerably.
2. Survey of Reserve officers: Reserve officers are being summoned to their respective Army centers where they are interrogated in detail on their entire past. After that their ranks are confirmed, but in many cases as of later dates than their last promotions.
3. Widening is under way on the following main roads from Prague:
  - a) The main road from Prague to Brevnov (051/L78).
  - b) The road Vokovice (051/L78)-Horni Liboc (N51/L78) leading to the Prague-Ruzyně Airfield, from streetcar terminal No. 11.
  - c) The two roads running along the river Vltava, one on each bank, leading south.
